

AVMs, blogging, VOW and DOJ

Jeff Laskey from MRED LLC will be in to discuss:

The DOJ settlement and the changes in MRED policy that resulted from the settlement, including the requirement to address VOW AVMs and VOW blogging.

VOWs (Virtual Office Website) are IDX's (Internet Data Exchange: an agreement between different brokers to share their data among each other.) and the differences regarding each.

DOJ settlement and the changes involving VOWs.

Automated valuation models (AVMs) and what blogging is.

It is a treat to have someone of Mr. Laskey's stature at our Association.

We encourage members to take advantage of this free seminar.
