Updated for 2012! This classroom course is a fast paced, fun and full of information about the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice. This course will help students become more familiar with the procedures involved in filing a complaint, hearing process, serving on the Grievance and Professional Standard Committees and compliance with respect to the Code of Ethics to enhance the licensees professionalism and enhance relationships with the public.

*Fulfills the National Association of REALTORS® quadrennial ethics requirement.

The current quadrennial period is January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2012.

***NOTE***

ALL REALTOR® members (every broker, managing broker, appraiser, and leasing agent) must complete one ethics class every four years to remain a REALTOR® Member with any REALTOR® Association. Failure to meet this requirement results in suspension of REALTOR® Membership and all services provided by the Association.

**Students must sit in the classroom the duration of the course and pass written exam to receive credit. No exceptions!
